

Course	Code	ECTS	LPW
Project Management	HIPME	5.0	4
This course will provide the students an understanding of “classic” as well as agile project management (PM) techniques. The main objective of the course is to enable the students to understand general aspects of project management, to gain an understanding of agile approaches in PM an being able to organize and run small projects themselves. The student will <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • have a general knowledge of project management terms and techniques such as the triple constraint and the project life-cycle • understand the basics on how to deal with occurring problems on a project • understand and use techniques for evaluation, planning and management of projects • understand the differences between the differences between “classic” an agile project management • be able to cooperate with colleagues • be able to identify the differences between various project type • be able to run small projects with the learned PM-techniques ° The course has limited capacity for students (20)
*Prerequisites: sufficient knowledge of English
Examination: tba			